

Céline Byl appointed investor relations manager of CNP Assurances

Céline Byl has been appointed investor relations manager of CNP Assurances, with effect from 15 September 2021. She consequently has responsibility for CNP Assurances' financial communication and is in charge of relations with analysts, with equity and credit market investors and with financial ratings agencies. She also has responsibility for CNP Assurances' preventive recovery plan.

She replaces Khalil Tabbi, who will join the teams in Milan as the Chief Financial Officer of the future Italian subsidiaries that will be created following the purchase of Aviva's life insurance activities in Italy.

She joined CNP Assurances in September 2006, in the Central Actuarial Department, as a savings portfolio manager handling year-end closing procedures, before becoming head of the Individual Savings Division within the Group Technical Department in November 2011, and then head of the Product Offering - Actuarial and Steering Department within the BPCE Business Unit. In January 2021, she became Director of Subsidiaries Supervision and Coordination within the General Secretariat, a position she will hold until September 2021.
