

Vincent Damas elected at the Global Steering Committee of the UNEP FI, the United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative

Vincent Damas, CNP Assurances Group Head of Corporate Social Responsibility, was officially elected representative of the European insurance sector within the Global Steering Committee of the UNEP FI. His term of office follows that of Ulrike Decoene, AXA Group Head of Communication, Brand and Corporate Responsibility.

Launched in 1992, the UNEP FI is the United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative. It brings together over 400 bankers, insurers, and investors around the world committed to working together on environmental issues. The UNEP FI, of which CNP Assurances is a member, is behind the Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), the Principles for Sustainable Insurance (PSI) and the Net-Zero Asset Owner Alliance (NZAOA). As a partnership between the global financial sector and the United Nations Environment Programme, the UNEP FI aims to accelerate sustainable finance and its positive impact on the environment. The Global Steering Committee defines the strategic orientations and brings together 13 representatives of the financial sector and the United Nations Environment Programme.

Elected for a three-year term from January 2022 to December 2024, Vincent Damas will represent in this governance body the CNP Assurances group and the large public financial group of which CNP Assurances is part.
