Insuring a more open world

Biography

November 2026

Frédéric Biondi

Head of sustainable insurance and corporate ESG engagement

Frédéric Biondi holds a Master's degree in Management from Institut Mines-Télécom, an Executive MBA in Insurance from the CHEA (Centre des Hautes Études d'Assurances) at Paris Dauphine-PSL University, and a university diploma in climate action from Université Paris-Saclay. He is also a Certified Expert in Microinsurance from Frankfurt School of Finance & Management.

He began his career in 2007 at Accenture, working with insurance companies on transformation projects. He later joined SCOR, where he held various positions in transformation and sustainability.

He subsequently joined CNP Assurances in 2023, and he is now Head of Sustainable Insurance and Corporate ESG Engagement. In this role, he leads the Group's work on sustainable and inclusive insurance, particularly in relation to climate change, biodiversity and social inclusion, and contributes to embedding sustainability across the Group's strategy and activities.