

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, 2 July 2018

Olivier Guigné succeeds Mikaël Cohen as head of investments

Starting on 1 September 2018, Olivier Guigné will take over as CNP Assurances' head of investments.

He will be taking over from Mikaël Cohen who was appointed to the position in 2011, and who is now preparing to take up new professional challenges outside the Group.

A graduate of the Supélec School of engineering, Olivier Guigné (45) has been head of CNP Assurances' investment strategy and listed investment management department since 2013. He joined CNP Assurances in 2009 as head of ALM (asset liability management) and asset allocation. Olivier Guigné has previously had a number of different posts in the financial and risk departments of investment banks, and in the Caisse des Dépôts group.

About CNP Assurances

CNP Assurances is the leading personal insurer in France with net profits of €1.285 billion in 2017. The Group is active in Europe and Latin America, with its secondary market strongly positioned in Brazil.

It has more than 38 million personal protection policyholders worldwide and over 14 million in savings and pension plans. Insurer, co-insurer and reinsurer, CNP Assurances designs innovative retirement and savings solutions. They are distributed by many partners and are adapted to their distribution mode, from physical networks to platforms that are 100% online, and the needs of customers in each country.

CNP Assurances has been listed on the Paris Stock Exchange since October 1998 and relies on a stable shareholder base (the Caisse des Dépôts, La Banque Postale, the BPCE Group and the French state).
