

Biography

Updated December 2022

Hervé Thoumyre

Hervé Thoumyre is in charge of Customer Experience & IT and member of the Executive Committee at CNP Assurances.

After graduating from the Arts & Métiers Paris Tech french engineering institute, he began his career in 1987 as project manager at the European Center for Nuclear Research. In 1989, he joined IBM where he held various positions as Consultant, then Managing Partner, especially in manufacturing and retail industries. In 2007, he joined Carrefour as Chief Information Officer to conduct the IT and digital transformation plan of the 2nd largest retailer in the world at that time. In 2015, he joined CMA CGM as head of Global Business Services to lead the business transformation program of the shipping company. Before joining CNP Assurances in 2019, he was Senior Vice President at Devoteam, one of the most promising french unicorn.

Music, cycling and architecture are his favorite hobbies.