

Isabelle Millet-Caurier

In addition to holding a degree in Social Security organisations, she honed her legal and social protection skills while working with the Private-Sector Hospital Union (UHP) from 1993 to 1999.

With 25 years' experience behind her in the healthcare, medical/social and social protection fields, from 2007 Isabelle Millet-Caurier created and held the position of Director of Public Affairs for the National Federation of French Mutual Insurers (FNMF). She had previously managed the Chief Executive's staff and served as representative within the FNMF's Healthcare Division.

In 2016, Isabelle Millet-Caurier joined the Social Protection and Services business unit of CNP Assurances as Head of Research and External Relations.

Isabelle Millet-Caurier is Head of the Fondation CNP Assurances and in charge of the Fondation Mécénat service.