

Stéphane Dedeyan

Stéphane Dedeyan is Chief Executive Officer of CNP Assurances.

As a graduate of HEC, Institut des Actuaire Français, and the Cycle AVIRA at INSEAD, he started his career as a consultant at Eurosept before moving on to AT Kearney.

In 1996, he joined Athéna Assurances where he was in charge of building the captive brokerage centre CARENE that switched to AGF/Allianz when Athéna was bought.

He joined Generali in 1999 as Occupational Risk Inspector at Generali Proximité; here he was successively appointed as Head of Businesses and Partnerships, Sales Director, and then Deputy CEO. In 2006, he became Chief Executive Officer of Generali Patrimoine and a member of the Executive Committee of Generali France.

He gradually expanded his duties to savings in general, and digital, marketing and distribution for all of Generali's business in France.

From January 2014 to December 2017, he was Deputy CEO of Generali France, in charge of all its insurance business. At the same time, from 2011 to 2017, he chaired the Personal Insurance Committee of FFA (Fédération française de l'assurance).

In the course of 2018, he advised start-ups and investment funds on their growth strategy.

In October 2018, he joined the VYV Group and became its CEO in February 2019.

He was appointed as Chief Executive Officer of CNP Assurances by the Board of Directors at its meeting of 16 February 2021, and took office after the General Meeting of 16 April 2021.

He is also a member of the Executive Committee of La Banque Postale, and since 27 October 2022, a member of its Board of Directors.

Since 21 April 2022, he has been Chairman of the Fonds Stratégique de Participations.
